HELENA STUDENT TO PERFORM IN UM CONCERT

MISSOULA-

A Helena student who emerged victorious from the 1999-2000 University of Montana Concerto and Aria Competition will perform with the University Orchestra in an upcoming concert.

UM music student Delight Scheck will share her talents at the Department of Music's Honors Convocation concert, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 3. The concert is open to the public at no charge.

Scheck, a soprano, will sing selections from Massenet and Haydn.

She is a junior majoring in music with an emphasis on operatic performance. She studies voice with UM Associate Professor Anne Basinski. In March, Scheck placed third at the national Music Teachers National Association competition in Minneapolis, and in 1997, she traveled with the UM Chamber Chorale to Vienna, Austria.

In 1998, she was named Miss Montana and competed in the Miss America Pageant.
